

Language use

Write the verbs in the simple past tense.

Example

Passengers on a Russian ship in the Antarctic Ocean (think) thought that they would be 0.

home for Christmas. They (plan) _____ to celebrate with friends and family, but the sea 1.

(freeze) _____ hard and the ice (become) _____ thick around them. Moving sheets of ice
2. 3.

(shake) _____ the ship. The crew (worry) _____ in case the ship (sink) _____.
4. 5. 6.

Another ship (try) _____ to reach them but failed. People on the ship (spend) _____ a lot of time looking out for rescue helicopters.
7. 8.

Write the verbs in the present perfect tense.

Examples

Hi Phil,

I have (be) been in the States for a year now and am finally getting used to it. It has 0.

(have) had its ups and downs, but all in all a great experience.
0.

Have you (hear) _____ the Crunch's latest recording? They are a big hit here in America.
9.

They now have a new lead singer and he has (give) _____ a new dimension to their performances.
10.

He has (begin) _____ to scream uncontrollably in some numbers – pretty weird. Fans have 11.

(come) _____ from all corners of the country to see them live. I have (pay) _____ a small
12. 13.

fortune for tickets to their next concert.

Must run, haven't (eat) _____ all day.
14.

Lots of love

Jenny

Write the nouns in the plural.

Example

He lost two (tooth) teeth after he tumbled off his bike.

15. I would like to order four (glass) _____ of beer, please.

16. Remember to buy two pounds of (potato) _____.

17. Autumn, with its millions of falling (leaf) _____, is by far my favourite season.

18. The child's hair is full of (louse) _____.

19. The club's (trophy) _____ are on show in a secured display cabinet.

Choose the correct preposition. There are more prepositions than you will need. No preposition may be used more than once.

~~into~~ up, for, of, at, down, out, to, on

Example

The police are looking into complaints about vandalism at the local school.

20. Can I ask you to quickly look _____ my homework to see if I have done it correctly?

21. I don't think that's true. I think you are just making it _____.

22. I hate spiders. I'm afraid _____ them.

Cross out the other ten mistakes and correct them.

Hello Elisabeth and Larry,

writing

I am so sorry for not ~~righting~~ sooner, we has been so busy.

I think your parcel arrive just as we left for a three-week holiday in Africa. Our post office will usual only hold items for two weeks before returning them. Luckily, our postal system is pour, and the parcel was still in the sorting office when we got back home!

It was great to sea a jar of danish liquorice sauce. It's so delicious on puddings and ice cream 😊

The book about Vikings you send us was very interesting. Thank you.

Our holiday in Africa was amazingly: two safaris in Botswana and then ten days on a beautiful island on the east cost.

...

383 002 Søndre Skole Rødby	TP 2017	Side 1 af 1 sider
FP9, Engelsk, Skriftlig
Elevers Uni-ID: albe1681	Klasse: 9.B
Håndskrevet Uni-ID: albe1681	Tilsynsførende:

Young person of the year

Stories about people with big hearts

7 month voyage

The young person of the year it's over, and I had been lucky to write about two of them. One of them it's Jessica Watson, she came from Australia. Jessica was nominated, because she had are really cool year, she had been the youngest to sail alone around the world in her boat, she had her oven blog, were more than millions of people follow her. She had been there for a while! Many of people come over to her ship, an take a picture, with Jessica were the ship are in the background. Her name it's "Ella's Pink Lady" Jessica had sail alone in 7 month. She been inspired by sailing at the age 12 and then had he always ben on her family's houseboat. Jessica wants to make a book about journey in her future.

Help

I had also talk with Joel Davis he came from Islington in London. He it's nominated because he never been helped at school, and that's why he stared a school for more than 170 children, so they can get some help, many people like him a lot, because it's not something me and you just do, he had really worked with that. Big respect for that! In the future he want to make a web-site/blog were he can write about he's ideas so other can be inspired. And who knows maybe it's you...one day will maybe do something like this.

Respect

I had really respect for people like them, they do something they like to do, but they help also people...like Joel with he's school, and for Jessica because she will be a role model for many children. These awards it's an award there are deserve.

Award

The award "Yung person of the year" it's an award, were everyone can be nominated to. You, your friend, your parents...yeah everyone can, the only you need to do its do something good for you, and for other people, and that it's actually everything you need to do.

-So what are you waiting for?

Joel Davis, Islington, London,
Great Britain

Background:

Joel was born in Islington, London 1995. He came from a poor Family. He assistance his mother, because she was sick. She had a tumour in her brain as big as a chicken egg, and she was a drugs addicted and his dad was a drunk asshole there beating him every night for fun. And he(Joel) had a sister her name was Katrine, his dad did also rape his sister and Joel. He was not that good to follow the class, and he didn't get any help form any one. One day an old man come him to help. And they become friends, the old man's name was Harry, Harry had a big dog, and they made a deal, if Joel walked with the dog, ones or twice a day, would Harry help him with the reading. And after a couple weeks he girth progress. There family deserves more then £500

Nominated Because:

He help a lot of kids, actual not less than 170 kids. And they all were getting higher grades. Then other people in the world started get inspiration, of the kid who started it, he is acutely a role model for others.

Joel, he even inspired me, he is a great man, because even if he has his own mother to take care of, he still go out der and helped all these kids to get a better grade.

I think that he deserves more than £500 pound.

THE END....