

Evaluation of the grammar game

Name of the game:
Names of the members of the test group:
Does the game work, i.e. are you able to play it? If not, why?
Is the layout attractive? Why?
Were the instructions clear? If not, why?
What did you learn from the game?
Was that the purpose of the game?
Do you think it fits the target age group?
Did you receive any information about why the game was constructed in this particular way? If not, do you think you may need it?
Did you receive any information as to the relationship between the target age group and the choice of grammatical topic? If not, do you think you may need it?
Could you use the game in your teaching? Why (or why not)?
What do you think the group that created the game have learned from the process?
Do you have any other comments?	